

DR OREN BIGOS QC

BARRISTER

CURRICULUM VITAE

OVERVIEW

Dr Oren Bigos QC practises nationally in corporate and commercial law, undertaking both trial and appellate work. He took silk in 2019.

He has substantial experience in corporations, insolvency, class actions, equity and trusts, property, banking and finance and trade practices/consumer protection. He has acted in many major corporate collapses. He also has public and regulatory law experience and has acted for and against regulators. He has represented both class action plaintiffs and defendants.

Oren regularly appears for a wide range of private and government clients in proceedings in superior courts, both at first instance and appellate level. He has appeared several times in the High Court.

Oren won the Supreme Court Prize at Monash University. With the assistance of a Menzies Scholarship Oren completed BCL, MPhil, and DPhil degrees at Oxford University. His BCL subjects were Conflict of Laws, Restitution, International Dispute Settlement, and Global Comparative Financial Law (in which he won the prize) and he was awarded a Distinction. His doctoral thesis was on Conflict of Laws.

Before coming to the Bar, Oren worked as the Associate to the Hon. Justice Finkelstein of the Federal Court, and as a solicitor at Mallesons and Freehills.

He is listed in the “Best Lawyers” rankings (published in the AFR), the Chambers & Partners barrister rankings, and Doyle’s Guide.
